

SANGUINARY CONFLICT IN MEXICO

CANADIAN NORTHERN TO BUILD FORTY MILES TOWARD PEACE RIVER THIS YEAR

WILL LET CONTRACTS WITHIN A FEW DAYS FOR LINE NORTHWARD

Railroad Builders Out Over the Survey Sizing Up the Country—Branch Leaves Main Line at Onoway Crosses Athabasca 30 Miles Below Confluence of the McLeod River

The first contract of 40 miles on the new Canadian Northern line towards the Peace River will be awarded within a few days. Representatives of the Cowan Construction company, of which Chas. J. Merry is the head, left the city this week, driving northwestward, and will look over a considerable portion of the new work. On their return on Saturday evening, it is understood that they will meet Mr. Merry here, who will make arrangements to have work started in the spring.

The new line towards the Peace river has been located for a distance of 80 miles northwest of the city, the survey parties having returned to the city a few weeks ago. The line leaves the main line at Onoway, about 30 miles west of the city, and runs northwest to the Pembina and to the Athabasca river, and crosses the Athabasca 30 miles below the mouth of the McLeod river.

It is understood to be the intention of the railway company to push this line forward as fast as possible, and to have at least 40 miles completed this year.

The survey of the line is to be carried through next year to Dunvegan, on the Peace river, and eventually through the Pine Pass to the Pacific coast.

Between Edmonton and the Athabasca, the new road will open up millions of acres of first-class agricultural land, almost all of which is still open for homestead and a great deal of which was only thrown open this spring.

GRAND TRUNK HOTEL MAY COST MILLION

Structure Alone Will Cost More Than $400,000—Construction Will be Commenced As Soon As Plans Are Completed—City Makes Concessions

A detailed assessment of $50,000 for five years on property worth $125,000, water at cost for 20 years, and the right to close a portion of the line from McDougall avenue, are concessions granted by the city council last evening to the Grand Trunk Pacific railway, as inducements for the erection of an hotel on the site of the present Grand View hotel, and the McDougall property, that will cost at least $750,000, including furnishings.

A by-law is to be prepared for the outpayers at once, and the railway company has promised immediate construction of their big new hotel, ground will be broken as soon as the plans, which are now being prepared in Montreal, are completed. The hotel is to be the most modern in every line in the west.

The negotiations with the city council were conducted by W. P. Hinton, general passenger agent, and D. A. Tate, general solicitor, who left the city again for the east this morning. Mr. Hinton gave assurance before he left that the hotel would be proceeded with this year. The property on which the hotel will be built is the property now occupied by the Grand View, the Travis Barker Exchange Mart, and 50 feet of the McDougall property to the north of the line next the Grand View. It is probably the most desirable site for a hotel in the city. It overlooks the river valley for a great distance, and is close to the heart of the city.

In lieu of the closing of the line next the Grand View the railway company agree to give a strip of land from the rear of the property. Options on the property which will expire in May will be at once taken up.

The structure of the hotel is to cost about $400,000. The entire hotel, when completed will not cost less than $750,000, and will probably run as high as $1,000,000. The hotel is to be considerably larger than that being erected by the company in Regina.

General Manager Chamberlain, of the railway company, who is now in Montreal, is securing plans for the hotel, and on his return west, construction will be commenced.

LEAVE IT TO THE POLICE TO REGULATE BOXING

MAYOR ARMSTRONG SAYS IT IS TO ATTEND TO SUCH DUTIES AS THAT THE POLICE ARE RETAINED.

"The regulation of boxing contests in the city should be left in the hands of the police department. That is what the police department is there for," said Mayor Armstrong in an interview with the Capital this morning.

"While I am opposed to prize fighting, I am strongly in favor of the encouragement of boxing, provided it is maintained as a clean sport," said the mayor. "There is no sport which inculcates with greater effect, the virtue of self control, and I am of the opinion that every boy should learn to box, and that boxing as a sport should not be suppressed."

"As to proposed boxing matches, if there should be brutality in any of the bouts, it is for the police chief to interfere. In any event it is a matter which should be left in the hands of the police department."

A PROSPERITY BUDGET.
Bank Clearings for the month of March just closed, are nearly double those for the corresponding month of last year, and show an increase of $900,000 over last month's figures.
The clearings for March were $8,804,702, and make the total clearings for the first three months of this year $24,047,602. The clearings for March, 1910 were $4,768,376, and those for last month $8,213,881.

BIG RECORD FOR LAND SETTLERS' OFFICE

Biggest March in History of District—Cash Alone $40,000.

SIX HUNDRED FILED ON HOMESTEAD LAND.
Rush Phenomenal Portends Enormous Year's Business.—Street Railway and Building Returns.

"With considerably over 600 homesteads filed upon, and the receipts totaling nearly $40,000, the statistics from the land office for the month of March will create a record for that month over the corresponding month of any previous year.

The fact that the spring rush of settlers has commenced just one month earlier than usual this year, is responsible for the huge business at the land office. When the final figures are handed down to-morrow or on Monday, the total number of homesteads expected to reach far above the 600 mark, and the receipts will be at least equal to, if not considerably more, than those of last month, which were $37,000. The deposit of $7,000 in land fees on Wednesday helped to swell the receipts.

The total receipts at the land office for the first three months of the year have been $101,000, much of which was in timber leases.

The homestead rush this month has been phenomenal with the past week. Yesterday more than 30 homesteads were filed upon. The clerks were kept busy at the counter till long after the regular closing time.

A report from the Landings sub-agent.

RECRUITS FLOCKING TO RANKS OF THE REBELS

Bloody Battle in Progress At Little Town of Santa Barbara Where Five Hundred Men Have Been Fighting for Three Days—Movement is Directed Against Diaz

Tucson, Ariz., March 31.—That a thousand men have been killed on both sides in a battle between federal and rebels in the vicinity of San Rafael and Ures, Mexico, since Monday is reported by a federal officer in Nogales, Sonora, according to a special to local papers from Nogales. The officer is said to have given the report to fellow officers upon receipt of news from Hermosillo.

The destruction of the Big Four mill at San Rafael by dynamite is said to have been followed by fire which completely destroyed the town. It is said that many women and children are numbered among the victims of the engagement, which was fought while the town was burning.

The rebels in the vicinity of Ures are said to number 1500 and are commanded by Juan Cabral and Colonel Gardarilla, Juan Garcia, Col. Giren, who was in command of the Insurrectos at La Colorado, Colonel Villacarr, Colonel Manace and Captain Ainze.

Recruits are said to be flocking to the rebel ranks from the surrounding country.

The original force of federals under Colonel Ojeda and Colonel Barron numbered 800, including 200 Yaquis. Three hundred men are said to have been impressed at Hermosillo and sent to the front.

Bloody Battle in Progress.

El Paso, Tex., Mar. 31.—A stubbornly-fought and bloody battle between 300 insurrection and 200 federal troops has been raging around the little town of Santa Barbara, south west of the City of Chihuahua, since Wednesday morning, according to a telegram received here last night from Parral. Both sides have sent for reinforcements.

Wednesday morning, according to the latest dispatch, the insurgents attacked and took Santa Barbara, but before they could strengthen its defenses, the federals rallied and attacked to retake the place. A body of 250 federals charged through the insurrection lines and succeeded in reaching the main line of the building but were cut off from the main federal body. They took refuge in a building but were an anti-Diaz one before everything.

Mr. Ritch is connected with the Dominion department of agriculture. He is a W. A. Dryden, a prosperous farmer of Ontario, son of Hon. John Dryden, and these two gentlemen comprise the commission to whom the government has appointed the duty of discovering why the sheep industry has been a failure in Canada when it has been a success in other young countries.

"We have taken evidence in three countries," said Mr. Ritch, who with Mr. Dryden, is a guest at the King Edward. "And we find that the industry in Canada has been most woefully neglected, and that that is the chief cause of its failure. Canada to-day is raising only 2,500,000 head of sheep, while Argentina, practically a young country, raises 76,000,000 head.

The commission will take evidence this afternoon from members of the Alberta Provincial sheep breeders' association, which is affiliated with the Edmonton Exhibition Association.

The sheep industry is beginning to receive some attention in this end of the province. The Western Canada Land Co., which have established a model farm west of Lethbridge at Lake Wabamun, last fall took in a flock of 700 head.

REQUESTS POWELL TO AVERT STRIKE

McKenzie King Wires President of United Mine Workers to Intervene in Crisis.

Ottawa, March 31.—Hon. McKenzie King, minister of labor, in the hope of averting the threatened strike in the western coal mines, yesterday sent the following telegram to T. H. Powell, president of the District Union United Mine Workers of America, at Fernie, B.C.

"Am informed there is a possibility of a strike taking place in consequence of a dispute between the operators and miners in southern British Columbia and Alberta without the said dispute being referred in first instance under the provisions of the industrial disputes investigation act, which applies to mines, and that this course may be taken with knowledge and sanction of officers of the unions to which the miners concerned belong.

"As the matter has already been made the subject of a question in parliament, and is likely to be further discussed at any moment, will you kindly telegraph me at your earliest convenience for the information of government if this report is or is not correct. Also if you are prepared to do all in your power to secure a compliance with the existing laws on part of those whom you represent.

"The government is prepared to do all in its power to secure to the miners of British Columbia and Alberta a fair play and justice in the consideration of any of their demands, and to facilitate in every way possible the means necessary to this end, and in the public interest, not less than the interest of the miners, it is hoped that those in positions of responsibility and authority will co-operate with the government in its endeavor to prevent any step being taken which might prove of serious injury to the general public as well as prejudicially affect the cause of either of the parties.

"I understand a mass meeting of miners is to be held at Fernie this afternoon to receive the report of the delegates to the Calgary conference, and that there is a possibility of this meeting declaring for a strike. Should such prove the case, I much hope that with the assurance given that everything possible to expedite the inquiry required by the act will be done, and that the meeting will agree to defer this step until it is seen if some settlement of the differences can yet be effected by the legislation which parliament has enacted with the express purpose of aiding in the furtherance of the industrial peace."

The telegram was also sent to C. Stubbs, vice-president district union, U. M. W. A., Fernie, and A. J. Gorter, secretary district union U. M. W. A., Fernie.

A Few Facts About Namayo

NAMAYO Avenue has attracted the attention of the investor owing to the fact that on no street in the city can as large a revenue be derived on the investment made, as on improved business property on this street.

Being the longest street in Edmonton, paved and double tracked for over a mile in length, having the dense population, who will do their shopping here, it is destined to be one of the best retail sections in this city.

Unimproved business property is now selling for $300 per front foot. We predict, and we do not think we are too optimistic, that this property will sell for $400 per front foot before July 1. Property north of the C. N. R. is also very active and being the only street near market that has a through car line, property in this locality should increase 25 to 50 per cent. in the very near future.

GRAND VIEW HEIGHTS

The "Beauty Spot" of
The Twin Cities

The New Auto Drive
The High Level Bridge
Amalgamation of the Two Cities

These things are assured. They are not speculation. They are begun. The University alone made them necessary. Do you know how to take advantage of these great factors?

The selection of a home site demands the profoundest thought. When you have pictured the style of home you want, you don't attempt to design it. You consult a mind trained to do it for you. The location of that dream home of yours is of far greater importance than the structure itself. You cannot build artistically on unsightly ground. A castle in a hollow would be a strange spectacle. Let the common sense that guides you in consulting an architect prompt you now.

The men who chose the University site, chose after great deliberation. Their judgment should guide you. Build your home on equally beautiful ground near your University. The University in all University cities, being the artistic center, is the nucleus of the most fashionable and exclusive residences. This is inevitable. Aside from this inducement, you are securing property that is opposite the city's great Park, Laurier. The new Auto Drive will encircle the property. Are these brief facts worth considering or not? Name any University city in the world where you can secure such lots as we offer at such figures.

RECIPROCITY SURE TO PASS EXTRA SESSION

Control of House of Representatives
Now in Hands of Democrats who will Favor Agreement—Great Change in Personnel of Senate.

Washington, D.C., Mar. 31.—With the opening of the extra session called to act on the proposed reciprocity agreement with Canada but two days away senators and representatives from near and far arrived in Washington today by every train. Passage trucks, overloaded with troops, proclaimed to the people of the streets that law-making is about to be resumed. The boarding-house keepers and tourist restaurant proprietors again have put on smiles, for they are promised good business during a good part of the summer.

As this will be an altogether new Congress, the sixty-second, a complete reorganization will be necessary. The swearing in of members and other work of a similar character probably will occupy the whole of the first day. Wednesday is likely to be devoted to both houses to reading of President Taft's message, which, according to common belief, will be confined to two subjects—Canadian reciprocity and the Tariff Commission. After that the lawmakers should be able to get down to business immediately, providing the Democratic plans for the organization of the house go through as smoothly as the party leaders anticipate.

Apart from the importance of the prospective legislation the session promises to be a very important one, principally by reason of the fact that the Democrats are to be the ruling power in the house after sixteen continuous years of control of that body by the Republican party. The dynasty of Reed, Henderson and Cannon has passed and the scepter now passes to untied hands. New rules of procedure, the result of revolution in the last Congress, are to be tried out and the question of the movement is whether arbitrary power in legislation is to be curtailed still further.

The new Congress contains 41 new members—19 senators and 122 representatives. The proportion of the two parties in both houses has undergone great changes. In the Sixty-first Congress the senate was composed of 29 Republicans and 33 Democrats, the house of 219 Republicans and 172 Democrats. In the house this majority is completely reversed. The Democrats now number 227, the Republicans 163, while there is one representative of the Social Democratic party. In the senate the change was less sweeping, but even there the Democrats have gained nine members, so that they now number 42 and the Republicans 50.

The changes in the membership of the senate are the greatest that have taken place at any time since seceding Southern States sent new senators immediately after the close of the civil war. The extra session will find in the upper house a score of new faces, or more than a fifth of the whole body. Of these about one-third are Republicans and the remainder Democrats.

Of the 122 new members of the house, seventy-eight are Democrats, forty-three are Republicans, and one is a Social Democrat. Of the Republicans, thirty-five are taking the places of other Republicans, either regular or insurgent, and eight are taking places previously held by Democrats. Of the seventy-eight new Democrats, twenty-three are succeeding other Democrats, while fifty-five have places which in the Sixty-first Congress were held by Republicans. The Social Democrat, Victor L. Berger of Wisconsin, also succeeds a Republican.

The attitude of the new senate to reciprocity with Canada, since no action on the matter was taken on by the Sixty-first Congress, cannot be forecasted with certainty. There is little doubt, however, that the lower branch of the new Congress will be as favorable to reciprocity as it was under the old Congress. At the last session, when the house voted for reciprocity, the vote for it was 224 to 92. Of the 269 members of the old house who are also members of the new one, 174 voted for reciprocity and 55 against it, while the remaining 40 were absent or not voting. These 174 do not form a majority of the 391 members of the house, but with only twenty-two of the 122 new members the majority would be attained. From all indications the new majority for reciprocity in the house will be as decisive as the old, if not more so. It is to be noted, however, that of the five Democratic representatives who voted against the measure, Congressmen Estepinal, Broussard, Pulo, Webb and Hammond, were returned, while of the 87 Republicans opposed only 56 came back.

CARRIE NATION HAS OHIO WOMAN RIVAL

Redoubtable Hatchet Wielder of Kansas
Is Placed in Shade by Canton Woman.

Canton, Ohio, March 31.—Mrs. Mary Evans, mother of Representative Owen J. Evans, is the original Carrie Nation. This came out when Evans, asked why he did not vote for the Dean bill, replied: "My conscience would not permit me."

Then he told of his early training and how his mother over twenty years ago appeared before frightened residents at New Berlin, this country, in Carrie's favorite role, armed not with a hatchet, but with that formidable weapon of the housewife, a broom.

Mrs. Evans, a woman of 66, a lovable mother, laughed heartily at her husband's recital of the incident. "Some men had started a shanty near the railroad," she said. "They gambled and sold liquor, although they had no license. We warned our boys that they should not go near the shanty. But I found out that they were going there, and I made me very angry when the men dared to allow the boys to go in, knowing that I didn't want it. I told the men that the next time my sons were admitted there I would come down and that something would happen."

"One night Willie went out and I knew just where he was headed. Armed with a broom, I went to the shanty and saw the crowd. I didn't stop to think. I fetched up the broom against one of the windows and it went into a hundred pieces. That caused some excitement inside. The other window went up and I walked in the door. 'Don't shoot,' some fellow yelled. 'They were scared, I tell you. But I did not stop and the broom did some service in the next few minutes. There was not much left of the decorations or the glasses and the bottles when I finished. Willie got home before I did. Owen couldn't have had a better temperance lesson."

Margaret Mayo, author of "Baby Mine," is writing a play of more serious interest and dealing with stage life. It is called "Behind the Scenes." Her husband, Edgar Selwyn, author of "The Country Boy," is writing a drama of oriental life.

TOLD OF CRIMES ON DEATH BED

John Cason Reveals Secret After Years of Upright Life and Church Work.

Montgomery, Ala., Mar. 31.—Broken in health and troubled in spirits supposedly because of being haunted by the ghosts of persons he had killed, John Trotman, in life one of the foremost respected citizens of Troy, and one of the foremost Sunday school workers of the state, has just been buried in the city of his adoption. He died near the age of sixty years, after having lived a youth which brought to him remorse in his old age, but only after having atoned for his misdeeds by work of heroic Christianity.

More than thirty years ago Trotman, one of the foremost Sunday school workers of the state, has just been buried in the city of his adoption. He died near the age of sixty years, after having lived a youth which brought to him remorse in his old age, but only after having atoned for his misdeeds by work of heroic Christianity.

cancer of the mouth, but through all of these troubles he was an active Sunday school worker and one of Troy's most substantial citizens. The Florida killing was the result of a quarrel during a game of billiards, in which Hunter Pope, a brilliant young lawyer of Madison, Fla., was murdered by Cason.

GREENE MAY TRY NEWSPAPER WORK

Savannah Gravier Will Make Little or
No Effort to Rebuild His Fortunes
He Says.

Atlanta, Ga., Mar. 31.—Free after his four-year term in the federal prison, and cheered by the good feeling of hundreds who offered him congratulations at the Piedmont hotel, Benjamin D. Greene is on his way to New York to live the rest of his days in quiet and peace with his books. "I am an old man, too old to begin the struggle of life over again, and I expect to spend the rest of my life with my family," he said. "I shall make little or no effort to rebuild my fortunes." It is possible that Greene will try newspaper work.

STRATHCONA HEALTH BOARD TACKLES PLUMBING PROBLEM

RECOMMENDS THAT CONNECTION WITH SEWER AND WATER BE MADE COMPULSORY—YOUNG MEN'S CLUB STARTED.

Strathcona, March 31.—The much-debated step has been taken by the board of health and if the council takes kindly to the proposition this year will see many property owners compelled to install water and sewer connections where considered possible. At a meeting of the board yesterday morning the subject was taken up and compulsory connection with water and sewer lines was finally endorsed as the only solution of the sanitation problem and a resolution was drafted in forcible terms for the consideration of the city fathers. This resolution reads:

"That connection with the water and sewer systems be made compulsory wherever possible, and that where these systems are installed, that the board considers this matter is the most important case which may be taken with a view of improving the sanitary conditions. And we would urge that the council take up this proposal at once." This was moved by Dr. Archibald, seconded by Dr. Holton.

Recommend Incinerator. Another important topic dealt with by the health board was that of garbage disposal. Very energetic objection has been taken against the further use of the present nuisance grounds and the board decided that in their opinion the only method of handling the matter satisfactorily is by the incinerator. A resolution along this line was endorsed and will be passed on by the council at the next meeting. The text of the recommendation is: "That the board consider the present method of disposal of refuse and night soil is unsatisfactory and should be replaced by the use of an incinerator, and we would urge that the city council take up this question with a view of improving the sanitary conditions and be replaced by Dr. Archibald and seconded by A. J. McLean.

Amongst other matter discussed at yesterday's meeting was the proposed contract for scavenging and a draft was approved.

Big Month for Board of Trade. With a few hours yet to run the month now ending has already set high mark for business turned in by the city board of trade and it is every indication that the work for this year is barely in the beginning. From figures obtained from secretary E. T. Baines this morning it is shown that outside interest has been centered on Strathcona in a greater degree this month than in any other corresponding period on register. The value of the Grand Publicity League in getting in touch with settlers was strikingly demonstrated yesterday when the local office received over fifty communications from investors, home-seekers and other prospective citizens, these coming from practically all points of the world.

The Register of March. Visitors to office; 175 (other than townspeople). Letters and enquiries received; 154. Pamphlets sent out; 350. Folders sent out; 400. Photographs sent out; 125.

This week five thousand eight-page folder filled with interesting and up-to-date information of the city are being issued by the secretary as an initial publicity move for the year and this step will be followed by an active advertising campaign.

Would Spend $1,000 on Grounds. The project launched this week by the executive of the Young Men's Club, which has for its object the improvement of at least $1,000 this year in its ing up bowling greens and tennis courts on a part of the new city park on Main Street, south of the city, which strongly commends itself to the majority of recreation exponents in the city and, in view of the favorable attitude adopted by the council toward the granting of a site is a project which promises to proceed along very successful lines.

While under the auspices of the Young Men's Club, which has for its object the expenditure of at least $1,000 this year in fixing up bowling greens and tennis courts on a part of the new city park on Main Street south of the city, which strongly commends itself to the majority of recreation exponents in the city and, in view of the favorable attitude adopted by the council toward the granting of a site is a project which promises to proceed along very successful lines.

According to present plans the club will arrange for the construction of three tennis courts and a like number of bowling rinks this spring and it is expected that these grounds could be in first-class shape by the end of May. The committee and the city council are making permanent use of that portion of the grounds inside the race track, bounded on the south by the present athletic field. Included in the $1,000 expenditure will be a suitable clubhouse and other facilities required in an organization of this size and nature. It is expected that at least 150 members could be secured, and that an enlargement of the lawn would be necessary within a short time is the belief of the committee.

Strathcona Locals. The hosiery enthusiasts announce an organization meeting to be held this evening in the Strathcona Hotel and an endeavor will be made to get a representative gathering on hand. Prospects for a banner season shine brightly ahead of a city in this spring and there is now little doubt that Strathcona will be well represented in the proposed league.

OLIVER SCHOOL TO BE OPENED TO-NIGHT

Minister of Education Will Be Leading Speaker—Good Programme Arranged.

A general invitation to the adult public of Edmonton to attend the opening of the new Oliver School this evening has been extended by the school board. The school will be opened at 8 o'clock this evening, by Hon. C. R. Mitchell, minister of education, and it is anticipated that Hon. A. G. Butterfield, premier of the province will also be in attendance, while members of boards of trustees throughout the province, and of the Edmonton city council have been invited to attend.

A programme of vocal and instrumental music has been arranged, and Turner orchestra has been engaged for the occasion of the school opening. A symphony exhibition will be given by the pupils of the Alexander Taylor school. The school board are soliciting that parents in the west and in the north, a special effort to attend, as a favorable opportunity is afforded for them to learn more of the school facilities provided in this portion of the city.

FITZHUGH THE PARK TOWNSITE

New Tourist Haven in the Yellowhead Basin. Our Big Hotel Planned.

After inspecting the new park townsite in the Jasper park, Howard Douglas, commissioner of parks, returned last evening from the west.

Mr. Douglas has spent the past week in the park. He inspected the new park townsite at Fitzhugh, which is to be a very fine point on the Grand Trunk Pacific, and which has been decided upon as the location of the park from the west.

The sub-division of the townsite will be undertaken at once and improvement work is to be carried on this summer.

The townsite of Fitzhugh is 16 miles beyond the crossing of the Athabasca river in within a very few miles of the hot springs in the Jasper park, which are situated in Fiddle Creek canyon. The G. T. P. will erect a large tourist hotel in the very near future at Fitzhugh, and the Dominion government are to undertake to establish drives to the hot springs.

Considerable tourist traffic is expected to the park this year. The Alpine club are preparing to have their annual camp in the Yellowhead this year, and the Grand Trunk Pacific are making special arrangements to handle the tourist traffic.

The new railway line will reach the park townsite about July.

The annual banquet of the Sons of England Benevolent Society was held with a special success last night, a large number of members and friends partaking of the excellent repast furnished in the hall of the Methodist Church. The evening was made more enjoyable by a program of music, songs, etc.

BIG RECORD FOR LAND OFFICE.

ency is to the effect that 17 homesteads were filed upon there the first two days of this month. The main of the Edmonton and sub-agency at the Landing, together with the sub-agency at Edson, on the G. T. P. will shortly be handling a total of more than 100 cities per day.

Half Million in Buildings. This morning the half million mark in building permits for the year, was passed, and a record established in March building activity in Edmonton. As compared with last year's total of $27,555 for the first quarter of the year, the total for January, February, and March of 1911, is $207,005, an increase of no less than thirty-three and a third per cent. With several hours of the month yet to elapse, and permits coming in in large numbers, many of them for substantial blocks, the total for the month of March, shown on the books at noon today, was $384,725. This may yet be swelled to $400,000 for the month. In March, 1910, the total was $264,435, and the increase respect to this one month alone is thus in the neighborhood of fifty per cent.

The number of permits issued since the beginning of 1910. During this month alone 122 permits have been taken out, as compared with 79 in March of last year. And while in numbers the permits of 1911 promise to surpass those of the previous year by an enormous margin, in the quality of the structures which are being erected the difference is still more marked. Residential permits issued this month, and included among these but an inconsiderable number are for a smaller figure than $2,000, while $6,000, is not an uncommon value. There are two very large blocks upon which construction has been commenced this month—the new $300,000 school and the $120,000 hotel block.

Street Railway Returns. All records in the street railway department, with the exception of those of August, 1910, when the fair work school swelled the receipts to an abnormal total, have been surpassed during the month which closes today. Approximately 398,459 passengers took advantage of the service provided by the sixteen cars, creating a revenue for the department of $16,641. As there are several traffic hours of the month still to run and today's traffic is heavy, these totals will be exceeded by a considerable margin before the last car comes in tonight.

In March of last year the passengers numbered 257,607, and the revenue was $14,326. Last month the passengers numbered 329,149, and the receipts amounted to $13,769. In August of 1910 the highest revenue month on record (17,059 was the total amount of the total receipts), the passengers carried numbered 389,639, or nearly 10,000 less than during the present month.

The magistrate issued a writ of WRATH OF ACCUSED. "Can I have a word to say?" requested W. J. Vole in the police court this morning after the Magistrate had fined him $1 and costs for assault.

"You can do the paying now," replied the magistrate.

"I can't understand that at all, I appeal," hotly and indignantly retorted the man with pugilistic inclinations.

"Three dollars and costs, that will be $4 altogether now."

"I suppose I have no right to appeal. Let me explain, it was just this way."

"Oh yes, you may appeal if you wish," interrupted the magistrate as the indignant one threatened to reel off a rhapsody of grievances, "the conditions are that you pay $4 here, and put up $25 as the costs of the appeal."

Still the defendant continued. "I suppose I have to pay a dollar then—I suppose it's towards a good one—the upkeep of the city?"

The magistrate explained that one dollar would not be enough.

"Four dollars eh, that's satisfactory. I've not got time to spend here in court. I'm a busy man."

Just as the outraged gentleman left the court he was heard in conversation with his accuser, breathing out fire and slaughter. "I shall bring action against you for breach of promise of contract," he hissed. This reference, the Capital learned, was to the manner in which Davis, the assaulted one, left the court, and of the accused to get a better job.

FARMERS IN SOUTH HUGEY BLESSED

Putting in Crops Under Circumstances Most Unfavourable Even Known.

"Farmers of the south of the province are now putting in their crops under the most favorable conditions ever witnessed," said Hon. Duncan Marshall, minister of agriculture, who returned last night from a trip of several days to the south.

Mr. Marshall visited Garmagay, Lethbridge and Taber, touring some of the farms in an automobile. He said that the farmers were seeding and cultivating their land in better shape than in previous years, and that the land was now in a splendid state of cultivation. There was plenty of moisture to carry the crops along through the dry seasons.

Mr. Marshall attended a meeting of the agricultural society at Garmagay, and also a banquet given by the association. He met the sheep commission at Calgary, where he made some important announcements, and told the commission that the future development of the industry in Alberta would be like the development of the cattle industry, that it would consist in the future of small bunches of sheep raised by farmers on quarter sections.

It is reported that Bernstein was so much angered by the opposition to his play "Apres Moi," in Paris that he will have his next play produced in the United States.

"The Golden Age," a new musical play on the order of "San Toy," has been given a copyright performance in Canada. The author and composer is J. Nevill Woods of New York.

A. H. Woods announces the engagement of Dustin Farnum and William Farnum as co-stars to be launched in a new four-act drama, entitled "The Littlest Rebel," by Edmund Peple, author of "The Prince Chap," and other successes.

Hamilton Revelle is to appear in London this season in a short play by Kate Jordan, which bears the title "Susan's Gentleman."

OXFORD IS FAVORITE IN BETTING BY SIX TO FIVE

WHILE BETTING FAVORS DARK BLUES PUBLIC IS INCLINED TO BELIEVE LIGHT BLUES LOOK BEST.

London (G.A.P.), March 31.—The annual boat race between Oxford and Cambridge, from Putney to Mortlake, is rowed tomorrow, starting at half past six in the afternoon, when the two services. Betting was three to one on Oxford until Cambridge blocked up in her trials on Putney, where a full course in fast time under element conditions, after which the odds fell to only 6 to 5 on Oxford, at which they now rate. The general opinion is the race will be remarkably close, and it is singular that Oxford is unduly favorite, everyone agrees that Cambridge looks a better crew on the water. There has been no change in either boat since the shift in the dark blue crew necessary from the retirement of C. Chalstone by medical orders.

THAT REMINDS ME—!

There was once a Y.M.C.A. wrestler who thought he was the Prize of the Mat. He had thrown some Dubs and had been declared that he was champion of his weight in seven states. He decided that he would turn Professional. His friends were also beguiled into the belief that he was the best Goods. They kidded him until he thought Frank Goleb was a Has Been and Georges Hackenschmidt was a Never Was.

There was a Used To be type of grappier living in the same town. He has been in the Pro-fish but had lost his speed and the young self-declared champion thought he could make his tak good by putting down the Has Been and then begin to look for some live popples.

The populace fell for the match. An athletic club agreed to handle it because both men were local figures and their friends would fill the house. The Coming Champion trained carefully. He worked out in the gym. He ran on the roads and was massaged every day by a Chocolate Colored person who knew his business. The afternoon before the match was to be held he rested in a dark room, while the massor went over his genty.

In the meantime the Has been has been training on electric, Pale Lager and custard pie. The coming champ rode to the scene of the match in a hack, but the Has Been walked. He was broke. When the match was finally announced and the Has Been and Coming Champion had been introduced to the Scorching Popple, the two faced each other.

"Time," yelled the referee. The Has Been offered his hand as though to shake and the Coming Champion accepted. There was a sudden movement. The Has Been turned his back, hip-kicked him, tossed him in the air and pinned him as he struck the floor. First fall, 2:45 seconds.

The Coming Champion believed he had been Double Crossed. He would shake hands for the second fall and his eyes burned with Hite. He was going to get his Revenge. As they went into the referee's hold, the Has Been suddenly slipped, but as he fell he put his foot in the Coming Champion's stomach and tossed him over his head. His fall was a dull, sickening thud and the Has Been did not need to pin him to the mat. He laid calm and still.

Moral: Experience is a great teacher. Barney Oldfield, when he was racing, used to take delight in calling on the sporting editors in the cities he was visiting. He used to enjoy taking them for little spins in his Green Dragon. He always had a fresh editor for each trip. None ever repeated.

"I am going out to work out on the Elm Ridge track this afternoon. Want to go along?" Oldfield asked of a Kansas City scribe a couple of years ago. The scribe thought it was best picking. Good story and a nice afternoon. He went out with Oldfield and they got into the race. It was very pleasant out as far as the city limits and then Oldfield decided to "earn her up."

He threw on the high speed lever and the Dragon jumped about 16 feet. Then she started "warning up." She responded to the gradually-opened throttle until the sport editor had to notice a pain in his hands and the scribe holes in the brass eardrums hanging on. The scenery, which up to this line had appeared normal, began to take on a hazy appearance. The telephone poles looked more like a picket fence than anything else and the machine was apparently only touching the tops of the hills. The horrified writer of sports news also observed that the speed indicator was registering 90 miles an hour.

Oldie id shoved the spark up a bit and the Dragon began to sing. The scenery now took on a slash-ray tone and the wind was blowing a zane.

The telephone poles now looked like a high board fence. The next afternoon another sporting writer was taken for a drive. For the following week the claps that did the churches were getting out the sporting pages of Kansas City.

ONE ON BILL KLEM

Bill Klem, the National League umpire, has a month of large dimensions, and thereby lances a tale that bodes ill to Cateher Larry McLean of the Cincinnati club if the National League ever hears it. The other day McLean, who also has some mouth, put in a couple of hours watching one of the big alligators at Hot Springs and kept it open most of the time. When asked why it was so interesting McLean replied: "I reminded me so much of Bill Klem on a busy afternoon, that I hated to leave."

WITH THE BOXERS

A New Orleans promoter is trying to bring together Battling Nelson and "One-Round" Hogan in a 20-round bout.

"Cyclone" Thompson is back from Australia. He has grown so big that he now boxes in the middleweight class.

"Old Man" McCuskey, a Bangor, Me., heavy, says that he would like to be considered when the "white hope" list is mentioned. All right, Mr. McCuskey was amongst those present.

Con. O'Kelly, Tommy Ryan's "hope," is in poor health and will return to his home in Ireland.

Packey McFarland is going to get married, and after two more years of the fighting game he will retire to the simple life.

Jack Dillon, the Indianapolis middleweight, is coming along on the high speed and looks to be the stuff champions are made of.

JAPS TO PLAY PRINCETON

Princeton, N.J., Mar. 31.—The management of the Princeton baseball team has arranged for a game with the Japanese baseball nine of the University of Kelo on the diamond here some time in May. This will be the first time a foreign baseball team has ever played a Princeton nine.

BOXING IS NOT AS BAD AS FOOTBALL

Denver, Col., Mar. 31.—"I isn't half as bad as these bull fights that are commonly referred to as football," asserted Magistrate Gray yesterday in dismissing the charge against Jimmy Gardner and Johnny O'Keefe, who had been arrested as the result of their contest at the Auditorium Tuesday night as a part of the Press club entertainment. The charge had been brought by the Christian Citizenship union.

BIG ATHLETIC MEET

Omaha, Neb., Mar. 31.—The cream of the college and club athletes of the Central West are entered in the big indoor meet to be pulled off here tomorrow by the Omaha Athletic Club, Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, Illinois, Michigan, Minnesota and several other States will be represented. In the relay races the University of Chicago will compete against the University of Michigan for the first time since the historic break in the "big nine" in 1906.

PLAYS AND THEIR PLAYERS.

A new play entitled "Maud," has recently been produced in Paris. It is founded on "The Luck of Roaring Camp," by Bret Harie.

George Grossmith and Leslie Stuart have written and composed a new musical play called "Peggy," which made a hit in London recently.

Robert Hiltchen's novel, "The Garden of Allah" will soon be dramatized and produced by Lieber & Co. The scene is laid in the desert of Sahara.

"A Man's World," in which May Manning will shortly be seen, discusses the old question of the double moral standard for men and for women.

Dorothy Russell, the daughter of Lillian Russell, is soon to become a dramatic star. She is now Mrs. Dunsmuir, the wife of an owner of gold mines in Peru.

CANADIAN BOWLING TOURNAMENT

Toronto, Ont., Mar. 31.—Visiting bowlers from half a dozen cities are in Toronto to compete in the championship tournament of the Canadian Bowling Association, which will begin tomorrow and continue for one week.

IS HOME OF CURLING STONES

Probably not one person in a hundred, except the makers themselves, know anything of the birthplace of the most famous curling stones, the Craigs, or "Paddy's Milestone," the conspicuous island rock in the Firth of Clyde.

This rock lies twelve miles west of Glasgow, and to that town thousands of pairs of "blocks" are shipped every year to be dispatched to the various curling stone manufacturers throughout the land. The Ailsa Craig rock stands alone; there is practically nothing else in the world quite like it. More curious still, perhaps, there are in the small compass of the island three varieties, lying beside one another—the common Ailsa, the red home Ailsa, and the blue home Ailsa. The first is found all around the island, while the red and the blue ones, which are considered finer, are quarried at a grouty altitude, although often found close to the other. These are the stones most in favor with curlers.

Before they finally are locked into shape the stones have individually to undergo more rough usage than probably any other implement used in sport. The blocks as they come from "the craig" are roughly chiseled-shaped and weigh about seven-and-a-half pounds each. They first are matched and put into pairs as near in pair and color as possible, after which they are dressed roughly by hand to the size required with chisel-shaped hammers, a long and tedious process. The hole through the centre is also done by hand, and the blocks then are ready for the burning machine.

Smoothed by Cutters.

One at a time they are put into a strong lathe driven by steam and revolving at great speed. Here they are gradually smoothed by heavy circular steel cutters attached to a stout frame, which travels by means of screws to the necessary positions. These disks are driven by the revolving stone while it is being cut down to whatever weight or design is required.

Next comes the grinding machine, an inverted cup revolving on a vertical shaft holding the curling stone down on a huge sandstone cylinder four feet in diameter by two feet broad and revolving below on a horizontal shaft. The harder stone quickly cuts its way into the softer, wearing it away to suit its own shape, after which the grinding process goes on till every mark disappears and the true color of the stone shows up.

The stones are now ready to undergo the most particular part of the work. Unless the soles are exactly similar a pair of stones will not run alike on the ice, and the bottoms all are aucte to suit the various wants of the curlers. The Canadians, for instance, re-

SPORT CHIPS

During the months of May and June horse racing enthusiasts in Montreal will have two meetings to attend. Beginning on May 29 and ending on May 27 there will be seven days racing at Delorier Park. This is the spring meeting of the Montreal Driving Club. The King Edward Paris Jockey club spring meeting begins on June 24 and ends on July 1.

W. Kelly, one of the proprietors of the Senate Hotel, is greatly interested in the Senators of the Hotel Baseball League and is bubbling over with confidence that Manager Page Fisher will put out a team that will be a dandy and will more than make good. George Erret is one of the players upon whom great hopes rest and it is believed that he will prove a demon plunger.

Of the Cleveland guard of 36 men at least 20 are more than six feet tall.

It is said that Hugh Duffy has chosen Tex Jones to play first base for the White Sox.

Manager McGraw will not allow Christy Mathewson to pitch any of the exhibition games this spring.

Mayor Gaynor of New York will toss out the first ball when the Glaxos open the season at the Polo grounds on Eddie Tinnmerman.

If Eddie Zimmerman can keep up the work he is doing in practice games, he will be a spangled beauty in Brooklyn this season.

Connie Mack has secured three of the St. Mary's College boys. They are Lynch, left fielder; Wallace, third baseman, and Fitzsimmons, shortstop.

"Kid" Elberfeld, the Washington infielder, says that he intends to raise carnations when his ball playing days are over. It wasn't carnations that he used to raise with the umpires.

A Tacoma scribe is responsible for this one. "While Isaac Rockefeller of the Tacoma Tigers, refuses to eat ham with his eggs, he is, nevertheless, a Yankee. He says so himself. 'Key's' uncle is a pawnbroker in St. Petersburg and his father runs a clothing store in Omaha."

McGraw finds fault with Fred Merkle for hitting the ball too far.

REAL ESTATE BULLETIN

Namayo avenue and Jasper avenue west and centre were in demand for business purposes today.

In residential properties, the H. B. Reserve and Groat Estate were in good request, in the west end, with Delton and Norwood, in the east.

In houses, the H. B. Reserve and Groat Estate were in strong favor, in the west, with Norwood and River Lots, Twelve and Fourteen, in the east end.

Preference is being given to houses standing upon a full lot, 50x150 feet, which is worthy of note by builders who are economizing ground by building several houses on one or two lots.

ALBERTA PARK

We have many good values in such houses, as well as cheaper houses on part of lots.

We are now selling this suburban property very regularly, but anticipate heavier demand and sales when the weather settles, and the roads dry up. Prices are advancing in the vicinity. Have you secured that block you have been considering buying?

JUDGES TO RENDER DECISION TOMORROW

Judgment In Large Number of Cases up For Appeal Expected in Morning.

Tomorrow morning the judges of the Supreme Court of Appeals will read their decisions in regard to a large number of the cases which have come up for hearing at the sittings of the court on banc. It is expected that a decision will be given upon the appeal against Justice Beck's order, joining the Alberta and Great Waterways Railway and the Canada Construction Co. as co-defendants with the Royal Bank in the action brought by the provincial treasurer to gain possession of $5,000,000 of Great Waterways bonds. At the same time a decision will be given in regard to the motion of Frank Ford, K. C., who appeared in behalf of the companies, asking that they be joined as co-defendants.

EDMONTON MECHANICS IN HERCULESE WORKS

Joseph Traea, manager for the Herculese Battery, who was in Edmonton Wednesday, took down to Wollaston a force of mechanics from Edmonton to put to work in the Herculese demonstration station there on the installation of the new triple-expansion compound engine there. The company is hurrying the work forward as rapidly as possible.

THE EVENT OF NEXT WEEK.

Not for many months has Edmonton afforded such an opportunity for art-lovers as will be supplied by the Art and Loan Exhibit to be held in the old Methodist Church on McDougall avenue next week. Fine old specimens of rare china, silver, paintings and engravings and a large number of interesting curios will be on exhibit at a nominal entrance fee.

In addition to the exhibit there will be tea-bolts, candy stalls and other attractions presided over by a bevy of attractive ladies.

A METROPOLITAN TONSORIAL PALACE.

Messrs. Morgan and Goughlin, well known for some years as the proprietors of the barber shop situated just immediately west of McDougall and Second's offices, have moved into larger and more commodious premises next door, where they have equipped a tonsorial palace unequalled west of Winnipeg. The new stand is of metropolitan dimensions, having no less than ten chairs, a number which will ensure the expeditious handling of customers. The lighting and interior decorations are pleasing in effect, while nothing has been left undone to ensure cleanliness and sanitation. The proprietors are making every endeavor to see that they are not behind the times in their line, and are endeavoring to move with the city.

"ALICE" IN WONDERLAND.

As an achievement in the training of the young idea, "Alice in Wonderland" at the Empire last night was a revelation. The little tots were the whole show and got away with the big end of the thunder. The entire performance was very smooth and went through without a hitch. The music is also very pretty. Miss Alice Potter as "Alice" was the star of the production and performed with the easy grace of a professional. Mr. Reynolds as the "Hatter" also played very well. Miss Davies as "Brilliana," Miss Howe as the Cook, and Miss Seymour as the Queen were deserving of special attention. The melody of popular songs as a finale was an effective feature. The performance will be repeated tonight and Saturday matinee and evening.

THE WEATHER.

Winnipeg, March 31.—The weather over the prairie provinces has been somewhat colder in all districts. In Manitoba especially the weather was quite cold during the night. Heavy snowfalls are reported at many points in Alberta and Saskatchewan.

FATHER'S FARM IN WRECK; SON'S COLLEGE COURSE, TOO

BRUCEFIELD COMMUNITY IN HURON COUNTY BITTER OVER LOSS OF LIFETIME SAVINGS—SCHOOL TRUSTEES CANNOT PAY THEIR TEACHERS.

Brucefield, March 31.—Though Brucefield is only twelve miles north of Dashwood, the little South Huron village that so firmly believes the government will make good the $85,000 entrusted by them to the Farmers' Bank, the feeling in the two communities is as divergent as the poles. The little Scotch Canadian flock of 200 people around Brucefield had $25,000 or $30,000 on deposit.

Dashwood depositors say "I HAVE" so much in the bank. Brucefielders say "I've LOST" so much in the bank. The latter are Scotch and pessimistic. Besides, unlike the Dashwoodites, they had no savings in the Sovereign Bank and did not experience the joy of reclaiming their deposits when that bank failed.

The Farmers Bank was their first bank. They say it will be their last. "After this we'll invest our own money," said one man. "Mortgages will pay us better and we'll be sure of them. You'd think the Bankers' Association would make good the deposits of the Farmers Bank rather than have their institutions discredited as they are."

Whole Village Smitten
"The whole village was into it," said Mr. William Scott, who ought to know, because for forty years he has kept a general store there and knows every soul in the neighborhood.

"They're Scotch and don't say ver much," he continued, "but the agents of two or three other banks that have been looking over the ground since the failure, decided there wasn't an opening for them here."

"It's pitiful when the folk come in for their mail to see them so downcast. If ye ask them if they aught in the bank, they'll just say:

"'Aye, a little.' But if they stay long enough to thaw out, ye'll find they have their life's savings, generally about $300."

"Here's a man that was badly shorn. James Swan will tell ye himself how much of his they have."

His Farm in the Bank
"Well, they have my farm, or at least the $10,000 I got for it," said Mr. Swan. "I just put my money in the bank for a few days until I could turn it over."

"I worked hard for that farm, too. I threshed for a living until I'd saved enough to make a start. There wasn't a dollar of it given me."

"My boy, Willie, who's about twenty, had saved $1,000 to put himself through college. He had a dollar when they closed the bank on him. He worked several years to earn that, teaching right here in Stanley Township."

School Tied Up too.
"He hasn't got his Christmas salary yet. The trustees owe him $225, but all their school funds, $500, are tied up in the bank too."

"My two little girls have in the neighborhood of $100 each—gifts that they saved in a little bank from the time they were babies and transferred to the bigger one."

Have the Oddfellow's Money
"In treasure for the I. O. O. F. 210, Brucefield."

"The Farmers bank have our $1,500 sick benefit and widows and orphans' fund."

"Why, they even took $125 from our football team, the 'Rovers,' and the public library fund of $20."

"Here's my nephew. They got into that branch of the family too. How much were you stuck for, George?"

George Swan, a young married man who keeps the livery, which in the country means really more of a stage agency, said he had scraped together and banked $400 to help pay off a mortgage on his house and business. He added:

"My father, John Swan, had over $500. When you think of how he worked helping my grandmothers clear the original land on the 100 acre farm that made that money, you can't feel feeling bitter against those who were responsible for his loss."

A Veteran Victim
Alexander Ross is 73 today. He is the oldest man living who was born in this township. A brother, four years his senior, was the first white man born here. His father came in on the surveyor's blaze over the London road in 1831 and $222 of the profit accrued from the 200 acre farm he started helps to swell the $113,000 that stood to the credit of the Farmers' Bank of Brucefield, Brucefield and Shipka.

"Like all the rest of the depositors here I've worked hard for my money," said Mr. Ross. "I helped clear nearly half of that farm. Some of the soft dirt trees had trunks so big that when they were felled the men on either side could not see each other."

Heartbroken by Failure
Will Boyd, despairing, harassed, John McKinnon keeps to himself on his 50 acre farm just outside the village, mentally watching the interest piling up on the $1,000 he still owes for the land.

"It's $435 in the bank ready to pay off when it came due on March 14. Now I have to keep on slaving for the interest," said he. "My boys are grown up and away, and it's not as easy as when I started 25 years ago."

"My missus is in it too—all her eggs and butter money, and my sons, William and Peter, who are just starting and have places to pay for, had their money in the bank."

"We're worried about that man McKinnon," said a neighbor. "He used buy flour, though his credit's good as I haven't seen him out three times this winter. He's brooding and melancholy. He hasn't money enough to the wheel, and he's honest as the day is long."

Take the Tip

"A bank'll not hold my money long after this," said William Berry, a horse breeder. "I had $301 there to meet a payment. It's there yet. Now I'm paying 6 per cent on a note."

"And it's having a bad influence over the young people," he continued. "My boy, Wilson, who's saved $60 since he left high school, says he might as well have had a good time on that money as let those other fellows spend it. A bank failure's a real poor encouragement to a young man."

Child and Church Pinched.

"Boss! Come here, Ross!" called William Scott, to his rosy checked little grandson of thirteen. "How much has it ye had in the bank?"

"Tell us how ye earn it!" Whereupon the manly little chap recounted sundry doles in old rubber, scrap iron, lead from tea boxes and pickles of wool that he collected around home and sent to Toronto at various times, getting $37.50 in return.

"In like the children of Israel," continued Mr. Scott. "It's forty years since I came to this wilderness."

"We've put up a grand Kirk now to take the place of our first little wooden one. It's a fine new edifice and cost between $10,000 and $14,000. I'd $300 of church funds in the bank. It was to help pay off the $2,000 debt."

Where His Policy Went

With only the house he lives in and what he can earn doing cement work, Thomas Kerr, a man of 60, and with a wife and two daughters to support, stands to lose $2,000, the proceeds of a life insurance policy of $10,000.

He deposited it in the bank. He made easy his old age.

Cruelty by the Bank
"That bank went bad time," said John Snider, maker, who has a year's mortgage to support, their payments here about. I wanted my $400 for and what money was required for new stock, no cash. When I dealt w sales, I have either to credit or raise money, a on a mortgage it is a det credit."

Paralyzing Loss
Although saying lit about it, perhaps the n this must be P. Bowey, ago he rented a place and started a general s bus business in London red the $3,000 so obta city to the Farmers Ba field.

That $3,000 was the years of industry. He intended building store this spring. Inst himself without capital cue of ready money round him. The farmer Many bills due at the e cannot be paid for som ness is not booming. hesitating in just a little, unless he jeopardizes I thus it hard to make men see this.

"The $158 I had in there to meet a paymen farm at New Year's," v Collins, who had joined lected at the village post.

"The loss of my $700 or $800 puts me in a bad way," said James Boyce, another farmer.

Home Shut Up.
"I wish you could see Mrs. Riesberry," said still another man. "But for house is shut up since the bank failed. All the money she had was on deposit—something over $500. She's a gentlewoman who used to paint pictures beautifully and sell them so that she could have a little extra to give to the church."

Can't Pay Teachers.
"It's tight for about Section 10 of Stanley School owing the teacher $226 on last year's salary," admitted James McQueen, the treasurer. "Kippen, three miles south of here, is in the same predicament. They haven't paid their teacher, W. H. Johnston, and he has a large family and needs the money. Duncan Bay, the treasurer there, had $500 of school funds in the bank. He went down to Toronto the other day to see Henry Elmer, the member for South Huron. The board is anxious to know what they can do legally."

Under the school law money may be raised to pay the salary of the teacher for next year, but no more money can be raised by the trustees to pay the salary of the school teachers this year. An effort is being made to force the trustees to put up the money, as they were responsible for it. The school law gives no redress for the trustees.

Sold all for Bank
"The bank took me to $2,000 from my family," continued James McKinnon. "My son Arthur, who works for me on the farm, had about $300. The hardest case of all, though, is that of William Kaler."

"Why his poor wife used to scrub the school for us!"

"She goes out washing three days in the week now."

"Yes, those Farmers' Bank people took $5,000 from them. Cleveland's one thousand shirtwaist

Crippled by the Crash
"That bank went bad at a bad time," said John Snider, the harness-maker, who has a young family and his mother to support. "The bank's payments here about New Year's. I wanted my $400 for that purpose, and what money was coming to me I required for new stock. Now there's no cash. When I deal with the wholesaler, I have either to lose the discount or raise money, and if you put on a mortgage it is a detriment to your credit."

Paralyzing Business
Although saying little or nothing about it, perhaps the man who feels this most is P. Bowey. Two years ago he rented a place in the village, and started a general store. He sold his business in London and transferred the $3,000 so obtained from that city to the Farmers Bank in Brucefield.

"My missus is in it too—all her wages and better money, and my sons, William and Peter, who are just starting and have places to pay for, had their money in the bank."

"We're worried about that man McKenzie. He's a neighbor. He used buy flour, though his credit's good as I haven't seen him out three times this winter. He's brooding and melancholy. He hasn't money enough to the wheel, and he's honest as the day is long."

Child and Church Pinched.

"Ross! Come here, Ross!" called William Scott, to his boy checked little grandson of thirteen. "How much was it ye had in the bank?"

"Tell us how ye earn it!" Whereupon the manly little chap recounted money due in oil, rubber, serran, lead from tea boxes and pickings of wool that he collected around home and sent to Toronto at various times, totaling $27.50 in the bank.

"I'm like the children of Israel," continued Mr. Scott. "It's forty years since I came into the wilderness. 'We've put up a grand ark now to take the seed of our first little wooden one.' It's a fine new edifice and cost between $10,000 and $14,000. I'd $300 of church funds in the bank. It was to help pay off the $2,000 debt."
